Personal Injury Lawyers in Hartford

When an accident involving a personal injury occurs, money settlements are often available from the person, company or municipality, who is found to be at fault. This is a highly specialized area of the law, requiring medical knowledge, as well as experience in placing a dollar value on the injury, considering the age, sex and earning potential of the victim. Our attorneys have years of experience in handling these matters for clients and achieving significant recoveries.

The cases we have handled include wrongful death claims, auto accidents, medical malpractice, permanent disability and a variety of negligence claims. We will prepare a demand package base on the value of your claim. This will include documentation of your injuries, potential future disability, medical costs incurred, anticipated future medical costs, lost wages, impairment of earning capacity, loss of consortium, and any other relevant information. In the event we cannot reach a reasonable settlement, we will pursue a court action on your behalf.

Our law firm can help you with any of the following types of accidents:

- Car crashes
- Medical malpractice
- Slip and falls
- Workplace injuries
- Nursing home abuse
- Animal bite wounds
- Prescription side effect
- Wrongful death
